Who is the controller of the processing of your data?

Identity: Everis Foundation.

Postal address: Avenida de Manoteras 52, 28050, Madrid, Spain.

E-mail: fundacion.everis@everis.com

Contact of the Data Protection Office: You can contact the Data Protection Office at data.protection.office@everis.com

For what purposes do we process your personal data and based on which ground?

Your personal data will be processed for the following purposes and based on the following grounds:

To carry out the management of the tender and awarding of prizes. This processing is based on the performance of the contract with you (without your personal data, we cannot manage your application).

To perform statistics, based on our legitimate interests. We may anonymize your personal data and process aggregate data for statistics, e.g. about the users and use of our services. We believe that statistics can lead to enhancement of user experience, improvement of services and innovation, which will help the persons concerned by our services.

To send you information about activities of the everis Foundation that may be of interest to you, including calls for prizes, news, events, newsletters, conferences, publications, etc. This processing is based on consent, which you can withdraw at any time.

To manage our website. From the moment the user accesses this website, their IP address may be recorded on our machines in the form of LOG (historical) files. Consequently, the user leaves a trace of the IP address assigned to him by his access provider in each session, so that every request, query, visit or call to an element of a website could be recorded. Notwithstanding the foregoing, LOG files do not identify the name and surname of the user and will only be used for internal purposes such as controlling access to and security of the website. This processing is based on the performance of the contract with you (without your personal data, we cannot give you access to our website). We may also use cookies on our website in accordance with our cookies policy.

Category of data processed

The personal data that we process about you comes from the information that you provide us by filling in the forms that you will find on the website.

In particular we will process the following data in case you complete the form available:

- Identifying data: name, surname, company and e-mail address.
- Third-party data: In the event that the user provides the everis foundation, by any means, personal data relating to individuals other than the user (such as, but not limited to, authors or collaborators of the project), the user must, prior to communication or disclosure of their data to the everis foundation, inform such people about the content of this section. The user guarantees that he is entitled to communicate the personal data of these third parties to everis foundation.
- Data quality and updating: The user guarantees that the personal data provided to everis foundation, through this website, are true, correct, current and complete, and is responsible for communicating to everis foundation any modification or update thereof.

How long will we keep your data?

Your personal data will be kept for as long as necessary for the purpose for which it was collected and as long as the user relationship on the platform remains active. As soon as the interested party communicates its interest in no longer using the platform or revokes its consent, its information will be deleted.

The conservation of your data for the purpose of sending you newsletters, commercial communications or information relevant to the activities of the Foundation, will remain in the system for 10 years after you give your consent, unless you would request their erasure before.

To which recipients will your data be communicated?

The personal data you provide to us may be communicated to the Everis Group entities. An updated list of the entities that make up the Everis Group is available at www.everis.com

Your personal data can be communicated to other companies that process personal data in our name and on our behalf (known as 'processors'): providers of hosting and maintenance services, providers of marketing tools.

Obviously, your personal data can be communicated to third parties when there is a legal obligation to do so.

We can transfer your personal data to countries outside the European Economic Area. Each transfer will be based on appropriate safeguards (adequacy decision and/or standard data protection clauses). If you would like to know how to obtain a copy of the appropriate safeguards, you can contact the Data Protection Office at the address stated above.

What Are Your Rights?

You have the following rights over your personal data:

- Right to request access to personal data,
- Right to request rectification or erasure of personal data,
- Right to object,
- Right to request restriction of the processing,
- Right to data portability, and not to be the subject to automated decision-making (including profiling).

In order to exercise your rights, you must send us a written communication by e-mail to the address data.protection.office@everis.com enclosing a copy of your National Identity Document and details of the right you wish to exercise.

You may also exercise your rights by writing to the everis foundation, Avenida de Manoteras 52, 28050, Madrid, enclosing a photocopy of your National Identity Card or equivalent identification document.

We also inform you that you may request the protection of your rights before the competent supervisory authority (e.g. in Belgium: the Belgian Data Protection Authority located at rue de la Presse, 35, 1000 Bruxelles ; in Spain: the Spanish Data Protection Agency located at Calle de Jorge Juan, 6, 28001 Madrid).
